Continuation of 5. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: of the reasons set forth in the prior offcie action. Particularly, the proposed amendments would require further consideration and new search. Regarding claims 23-26, note in general it is true that a "isolate" compound is distinct from naturally occurring composition containing the compound. However, here applicants expand the scope of "isolate" to encompass "crudely purified" or "extract", making the claimed invention read on tea (theanine extract) or tea product (crudely purified).
